CLASS OF 1958

KELLOGGSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Grand Rapids, Michigan

FOREWORD

We are the class of 1958. We have worked, played, thought, planned, and hoped together during one of Kelloggsville's greatest periods of progress. We have seen its walls extend, only to be extended further within a short time. As our school has progressed, so, at the same time, have we. Kelloggsville High School has become as much a part of us as we have of it. It has marked our progress in learning in many ways.

This 1958 Century is a written accumulation of our years here. It is to you: our administration, faculty, friends, and to our school, Kelloggsville, that we present this annual, THE 1958 CENTURY.

DEDICATION

We shall remember you for your patient understanding, your warm personality, and continual willingness and eagerness to be of service to all of us. We shall remember you as one who gave of herself for Kelloggsville School. We shall remember you for these and many more things, but always when we think of you, it will be as a wonderful friend.

Therefore, we, the class of 1958, take great pleasure in dedicating the 1958 CENTURY to you, Mrs. Cook.

We, the Century Co-Editors and Staff, were chosen to produce this yearbook for you. We worked after school and on Saturdays to meet the deadlines.

We hope you will enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed putting it together.

ADMINISTRATION

In 1923 the Kelloggsville school district consisted of only two classrooms. Since then the number of buildings has increased to six containing a total of sixty-eight classrooms staffed by seventy-four teachers. The school board consisted of only three members in 1923, and now with the increasing needs of the community there are five members.

UNDERCLASSMEN

With the increase in population in our community, our school enrollment has grown from about fifty to over eighteen hundred students. Because of the small classes at the beginning of our high school, only the academic courses were offered. Today the number of courses has increased to four to better prepare the students for the future.

SPORTS

In the fall of 1938, Kelloggsville played its first football game and won. Basketball also started in 1938. Our first baseball team was formed in 1935. Track trailed along in 1939. Competition in the Barkenal league was stiff, but Kel-loggsville won five football and two basketball championships. We dropped out of the Barkenal league in 1948 and played as an independent team until this coming fall, 1958, when we will be joining the newly formed Ottawa-Kent conference.

Coach Ruschmann

The Varsity squad was made up of fellows who had a real desire to play good football. They showed fine sportsmanship, were humble in victory, and courageous in defeat.

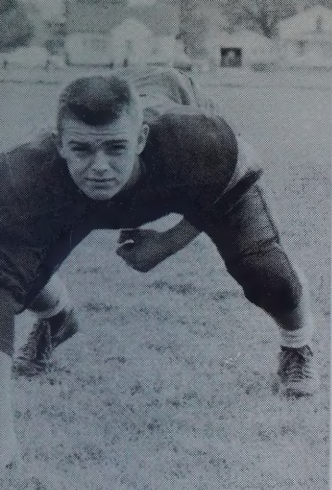

The team started the year slowly due to a rash of personal injuries, but they came through with a very commendable record considering the caliber of their opponents.

In all, the team had a highly successful season, and as Coach Ruschmann said, "The boys learned more than just football."

Coach Brumels

The second team had an undefeated season under the coaching of Gordon Brumels. While holding the opposition to only 20 points, they scored a total of 101 points.

Mr. Brumels attributes the team's success to the co-operation, interest, and sportsmanship shown throughout the whole season.

Some of the high points of the season were the defeat of a tough Lee team and the victory over Godwin by sheer determination.

Coach Van Domelen's team of freshmen had a good season. Their record was three wins, one loss, and one tie.

They were a fine group of boys who were large in size and were eager to learn. Some of them will make excellent prospects for our football teams in future years at Kelloggsville High School.

The Freshman Team this year had an excellent season climaxed by the winning of the Freshman Tournament Championship at Lee High School. Coach Van Domelen feels that this has been one of the best freshman teams at Kelloggsville. They should win more trophies for the school if they continue as they have begun.

The cheerleaders began this year to try out for individual positions within their own group every year. From now on every cheerleader and those interested in becoming cheerleaders will try out for the squad in the spring. The school has just furnished new uniforms made in the school colors, and the cheerleaders are very proud of them.

The past school year the girls attended the cheerleading clinic at Western Michigan University. During football and basketball seasons they have sponsored pep assemblies, one being the bonfire snake dance rally. The cheerleaders also served at the annual football banquet.

Our baseball team, under Coach Brumels, had a record of four games won and ten lost, but showed some talent for our future seasons.

Composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, our team tried hard and displayed excellent sportsmanship.

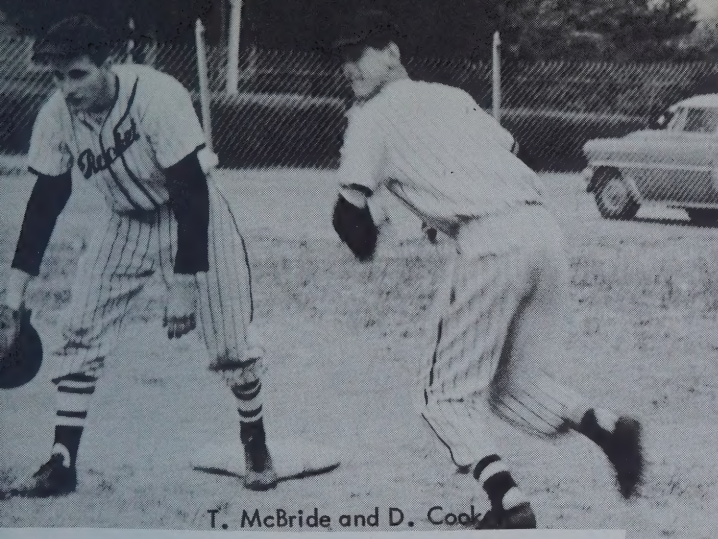

According to the Coach, the best game of the season was the second one with Godwin. We were leading in the last of the sixth inning, when Godwin scored and went on to win by a narrow margin.

SENIORS

In 1938, the first Senior class consisted of six members. In twenty years our Senior classes have enlarged until, this year, over eighty students will be graduated.

Each year a number of graduating Seniors have continued their education by going to college. About twenty-four members of the Class of 1958 are making plans to go on to college.

The class of '58 in their Senior Year was proud to present, "Off The Track", a play in three acts, by Felicia Metcalfe. It was directed by Mr. Herbert Ritsema, with Carol Remington and Sylvia Smith as co-student directors, who were assisted by committees made up of other members of the Senior Class.

The Class of '58 completes its BUILDING

It was a clear September day in 1945 as we approached 4741 Division Avenue where we were to begin working on the foundation of our first building. Here we were to spend many years together working, planning, developing, and improving on the building of our minds and personalities.

Our first few years were spent mainly in getting to know one another and in acquiring the experience with which to continue our project. From the "Three R's" we advanced to spelling and multiplication. While working on this, the first floor of our building, we often took "breaks." On Halloween we replaced our work clothes with costumes and paraded through the other classrooms. In the spring "Field Day" was held on the football field. After the picnic, games and contests were held with pennies, nickels, and dimes awarded to the winners.

Due to too many workers on our building we could only work half days during our fourth year. However, progress was not seriously slowed.

In the sixth grade we were given some new equipment with which to work: responsibility. Now we were the Safties and it was our job to help and to protect the younger children. Our efforts were rewarded with an exciting all-day trip to Detroit. Because of rain we were unable to attend the scheduled baseball game, but the Henry Ford Museum proved equally interesting.

This completed the first floor of our structure, and we, the construction crew, advanced to a second level, junior high school. We took time off from our job to attend our first "Dress-Up Ball."

As we progressed through our eighth year, one of our foremen, Mr. Hunnes, instructed us in mental arithmetic. It kept us on our toes, as we had to be, for we were always reaching up to lay another brick of knowledge on our building.

And now this level was completed. The third floor, senior high, was ready to be added. The height made us a little dizzy at first, but we soon became used to it.

As freshmen we officially gained the title of "Class of '58." We held Parent-Teacher-Student Conferences which helped us to plan our work for the following years.

Meanwhile we added a new wing called extra-curricular activities: clubs and sports. They rounded out our days and made us feel that we were an important part of Kelloggsville.

As we worked on our structure we also sold magazines, Christmas cards, milk and hot chocolate to cold ice-skaters. Under the direction of Foreman Fibiger we presented our Junior Play entitled "Caught in the Web." We dipped into our "kitty" to entertain at the Junior-Senior Prom, "Stardust."

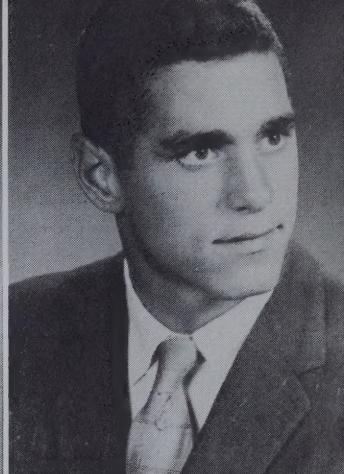

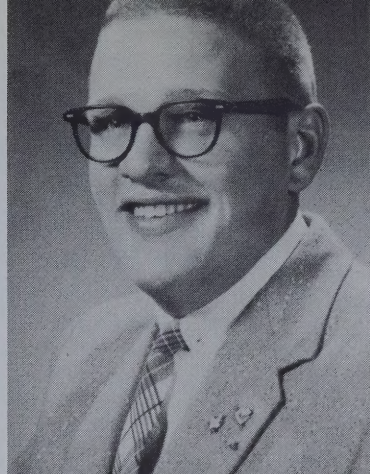

At last our structure was completed and ready for the roof. The building bricks: knowledge, friendships, responsibility, maturity, and achievement, were all in place. Putting on the roof, under the supervision of Mr. Ritsema, Mrs. Greenwald, and Mrs. Martin, was by far the most enjoyable part of our job. As seniors we presented the Senior Play, traded pictures, and put on dances. As a final vacation before leaving our project we spent a memorable five days in Washington, D.C. This was probably the last time our team of workers would be together. We visited the Capitol building, the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument, and other points of interest. All too soon we had to go home, and on the way we stopped off at Gettysburg.

At last the final shingle was nailed in place, and this building was completed. We had worked faithfully for its erection. As graduation day approached we knew we would always remember our fellow workers.

Now we shall go on to build bigger, better, and stronger structures. What we learned from this, our first experience in construction, will serve as a foundation as we draw up the plans for our futures.

The FOUNDATION is SET. . .

For thirteen long years we've laid the foundation
With our teachers' kind co-operation.
We've practiced, we've studied,
We've read through our books.
We've learned how the world around us looks.

From grade school to high school
We've forged on ahead.
And again we studied, again we read.
As we go on to meet our destination
We realize these things and more
Were all cement for our foundation.

The year is ending, our schooling is done,
And though we're almost on our own,
Future years will matter no less.
With the foundation set, our building will progress.

--Sharon Van Den Bergh

Our BUILDING will PROGRESS

We have accomplished our first goal now, and are on the threshold of graduation. As we close the door of Kelloggsville High and begin reaching for greater success in a higher goal, we know that the doors of our school will never be locked to us. We shall be able to return and watch the progress that will continue long after we have graduated. What we have learned here, the experiences we have shared here have prepared us for building our own individual futures. For us "The foundation is set; our building will progress."

Class Flower: Red Rose
